

Fall and Spring Faculty Classes

If classes do not meet minimum qualifications for a full class in the Fall and/or Spring the College could prorate the class. In a case that the class could be coupled with a lab or extra duties for the Instructor they could take the place of the prorated amount and give the Instructor the full load for the semester. The classes would be evaluated by the Dean of Student Success and Dean of Instruction to determine if the classes would be prorated.