

Final Examinations

Final examinations must be given according to the examination schedule, unless previous arrangements are made with the College-Wide Dean. If a student needs to take a final examination early or late, approval of the instructor and appropriate College Wide Dean is required. For changes in the final examination schedule for distance learning courses, approval of the Chair for Distance Education is required.